Re: [redacted]

Attention: AUSA [redacted]

Dear Ms. Baird:

This letter will confirm a conversation between Special Agent [redacted] and Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] on October 24, 1990, during which the following facts were presented for a prosecutive opinion:

During a period from September 7, 1989 through March 18, 1990, Dorothy Howard, who is movie actress Dorothy LaMour, received a series of letters through the U.S. Mail, postmarked St. Petersburg, Florida. The letters were rambling in nature and incoherent, however certain statements did contain references to death. The letters were signed [redacted] and his address was listed as [redacted] St. Petersburg, Florida.

On July 20, 1990, [redacted] was located and interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in St. Petersburg, Florida. [redacted] stated that he wrote the letters to Dorothy LaMour, but he would never physically hurt her. During the interview, [redacted] would ramble on and on, sometimes unintelligible, not in touch with reality. He was informed of the provisions of Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 876, which he indicated he understood. He made a statement that he would cease writing letters to her, but if he needed to write her in the future he would do it through his attorney.

On September 27, 1990, Dorothy LaMour was re-contacted and she advised that she had received no additional letters.

b7C

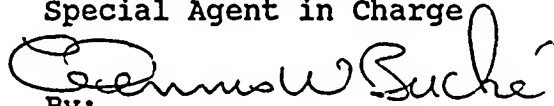

On October 24, 1990, AUSA [redacted] Los Angeles, California, declined prosecution in this matter for violation of Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 876. AUSA [redacted] advised that the matter lacked sufficient aggravating circumstance to warrant successful Federal prosecution due to the non-specificity of the threats. He further stated that [redacted] apparent mental instability would be a hinderance to prosecution if the facts indicated a violation occurred.

In view of the facts of the matter and the above opinion, the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is conducting no further investigation in this matter.
